THE PROCESS:

1. The student, in conjunction with the Committee Chair, recruits the Supervisory Committee.
2. The student or Committee Chair submits proposed list of committee member to the Agronomy Graduate Coordinator.
3. Graduate Coordinator will notify student and Chair of approval of list.
4. The appointment will be inserted in GIMS by Agronomy Academic Program Specialist.
5. Supervisory Committees must be appointed in GIMS by the end of the student's second term or after 12 credits, whichever comes first.

At any time, students may view their GIMS profile in ONE.UF

Right menu panel, expand "Graduate Students" and select "Graduate Information Management System (GIMS)".
